

This Week - March 4th

Program: Rotarian Tommy Jefferson presents
A program on the Knight Foundation
 Rotarian of the day: Lynda Reynolds

Last Meeting - February 26th

Program: Richard Lou

Rotarian Mitch Clarke introduced Richard Lou, chair of the department of art at GC&SU. Richard's art work has been exhibited around the world. He has been chair at GC&SU for two years and explained that a goal of the department is to involve their students in the community and currently they're involved with the Boys and Girls Club and Habitat for Humanity. Blackbridge Hall, which houses the art department, holds exhibits which are open to the entire community. He also told us about the upcoming "Arty-Gras! The Milledgeville Community Arts Festival," a community arts festival slated for March 18-21. Downtown space will be the venue for most of the art. A performance diorama will be held in Russell Auditorium on the campus. Choral groups, bands, dance groups and a video festival will be included in the event. For further information about the event, go to <http://artygras.info/>

Milledgeville Rotary Speech Contest

Last week we were honored to have students from two of the local high schools compete in the Milledgeville Rotary 2004 Speech Contest.

Mary Elizabeth Godfrey, a 10th grade student at Baldwin High School. She was the Baldwin High School representative at the Beta Convention in public speaking.

Kaila Jaworski, a senior at Georgia Military College. Kaila is a honor student, she is also the highest ranking cadet officer on campus.

Mary Elizabeth won last weeks contest and will represent the Milledgeville club this Saturday, March 6th in Dublin at the area competition.
