Program: MPD Youth Explorer Program

Rotarian Mark Bell introduced Detective Brandon Sellers who serves as advisor to the Milledgeville Police Department's Youth Explorer Post. Det. Sellers re-started the Explorer post two years ago. It is a co-ed program for youth between the ages of 14 and 20. A separate division of Boy Scouts of America, the Explorer Post #139 in Milledgeville focuses on career interest in law enforcement. It teaches participants about law enforcement with "hands-on" experience and in a classroom setting with the goal of exposing them to all areas of law enforcement to show them that profession as a career possibility. Sellers introduced Greg Williams, a John Milledge Academy graduate who has just completed his freshman year at Georgia Southern. Greg is Captain and Past President of the post and his participation has helped him determine he wants a career in law enforcement. The Post is primarily self-funding through donations and service projects for which the post members are paid.

Why Polio?

During the 1970s, Rotary International began a search for a universal humanitarian cause that would unite and drive its membership into the 21st century. A program where members could actively participate not just by fund-raising, but by volunteering in their communities and across the world — the cornerstone of Rotary's charter. The answer came in 1979 when Rotary launched a five-year polio immunization program in the Philippines along with the World Health Organization (WHO) and the Philippine Ministry of Health. The initiative was declared a success, signifying the end of Rotary's search.

In 1985, Rotary created PolioPlus — a program to immunize all the world's children against polio by 2005 — Rotary's centennial. PolioPlus is one of the most ambitious humanitarian undertakings made by a private entity ever. It will serve as a paradigm for private/public collaborations in the fight against disease well into the next century.

MEMBER PROFILE

Cathy Settle

Cathy was born in Milledgeville and has lived here her entire life.

She has been the Baldwin County Tax Commissioner since July 1995. She had been employed by the tax office since Jan 1989 and had worked in every aspect of the office prior to taking office.

Cathy became a Rotarian on January 4, 2001, and is currently Director, Club Service I, for the 2003-2005 term.

She and her husband David have two children - Caitlin, 6 years old, who is in Kindergarten at Davis Elementary, and Colton, 5 years old, in Pre-Kindergarten at St. Stephens Day School.

Cathy's involvement in Rotary has led her to form relationships with fellow Rotarians who inspire her to be a better Rotarian by being more involved in club projects.

Her advice for new members is to attend meetings regularly and become better acquainted with fellow Rotarians. That will help you become more involved.

NOTE: The next several Member Profiles will spotlight our newly-elected officers for the 2004-2005 Rotary Year.
