How to participate in the Rotary time capsule project

Club presidents and presidents-elect who are unable to attend the 2005 RI Convention in Chicago this month can still participate in the Rotary time capsule project. Clubs are encouraged to contribute a letter that expresses the club's past accomplishments and dreams for the future to serve as an inspiration to future Rotarians. Each letter will be deposited in the time capsule, which is to be opened by Rotarians in 2105. If they can't be present at the convention, club presidents and presidents-elect can send their letters through their district governors or other Rotarians coming to Chicago. The Rotary time capsule will be displayed at the main entrance to the House of Friendship (located in the North Building, Level 1, Hall C) at McCormick Place, the convention venue.

ROTARY NEWS

Dates to Remember

30 June - Installation of Officers

We welcome Rotarian Tony Broadley and his wife Jill. They are from Condobolin, N.S.W., Australia and are friends of Brad and Gail Oliver. Tony and Jill are on an around-the-world trip and the U.S.A. is their last series of stops before returning home. They depart tomorrow for Chicago to attend the International Rotary Convention celebrating Rotary's 100th birthday.

District 6920 will compile recipes for a cookbook. All Rotarians are asked to submit 3 or 4 of their favorite recipes. Proceeds will go to the Rotary Foundation, GRSP, METS, and the local club.

Making a Gift to The Rotary Foundation

Rotarians around the world give generously to their Foundation to support a wide range of educational, cultural, and humanitarian programs. These gifts ensure that dreams of a better life become reality for thousands of deserving people throughout the world.

Gifts to The Rotary Foundation can be made in many ways. To explore the wide variety of giving options, and to learn more about the financial benefits that may be available to you, see the items listed on menu to the left.

Thank you for your interest. The continued success of Foundation programs is dependent upon your financial support.

You can make a donation online at:
