The Milledgeville Rotary Club
Board of Directors '04-'05

Muggridge, community service; Gene Trammell, international service, Kathyjo Gordon, sgt-at-arms. Celebrate Rotary is this year's international theme and this will be the Centennial Year of Rotary International. President Fred announced that John Parkins of St. Simon Island is District Governor this year and will visit the club on Sept. 30. A few of Fred's goals for the club include 1) Celebrate Rotary with a variety of activities and programs planned throughout the year, and 2) earn a Presidential Citation with such projects as increasing membership by three members, a renewed commitment to PolioPlus, and participating in the Medical Equipment Transport Service (METS), a district wide project.

MEMBER PROFILE

Robbie Hattaway, Jr.

Robbie will serve as President Elect in the 2004-2005 Rotary year. He was born in Providence, Rhode Island, and his family moved to Milledgeville when he was six months old. He is the owner of Hattaway Screen Printing and has been in business over 25 years. He also owns Hattaway Rentals, several rental properties around town and recently started a home inspection business, Oconee Home Inspection LLC. He has two daughters, Rebecca, 16, at BHS, and Holly, 13, at GMC. His wife Debbie teaches at Creekside.

A Rotarian for over 20 years, he has been program chairman for two years and served on the Board of Directors at the same time. He enjoys volunteering for special projects like Christmas Baskets and ringing the bell for Salvation Army. He recently volunteered to present the Choices program at Oak Hill Middle School.

From Rotary he has gained some great friends and a weekly opportunity for fellowship. He also receives satisfaction from helping in the community. Rotary is my main social activity and he treasures the experience. He said he's honored to be President Elect and hopes he can live up to the responsibility.

NOTE: This Member Profile continues spotlighting our newly-elected officers for the 2004-2005 Rotary Year.
