Rotarian Scott Brown introduced Terry Cliett, president of Incorva. Terry introduced the club to The Integrity Project, a step by step method for helping people understand the need for individual and corporate integrity. A lifestyle of Integrity is built upon the Foundation of strong Core Values, kept in focus by an accountability network, made square and level by the Cornerstones, and is held together by the Cement. The Foundations of Integrity are Respect, Reliability, Restraint and Responsibility. The cement that holds the cornerstones together is Humility, Forgiveness and Discipline. The Integrity Project develops the Core Values and behavior patterns that lead to success.

Terry Cliett
 "The Integrity Project"

Rotarian of the day: Tara Peters
