

This Week - July 17th

Program: Rotarian
Tammy Beatty
presents

Dr. David Brown
Interim President of GC&SU

Rotarian of the day: Sam Watson

Last Week - July 10th

Program: Speaker & Rotarian Rose Bacon
"My International Rotary Visits"

Rose Bacon intrigued the club last week with her worldly travels and Rotary experiences. Starting in Oslo, Norway with an open-forum discussion, she traveled next to Stockholm, where she was delighted with excellent music, and a Champagne lunch when Stockholm's Rotary had the induction of new officers. Her last stop on her "International Rotary Tour" was in Helsinki, where the topic on everyone's mind was, "The Watergate of Finland." Rose tried to finish up her tour in Russia, but missed the event due to a change of venue. Her closing thought was that Rotary really is a world-wide family.

The Rotary Club of Milledgeville Board of Directors met Wednesday 7/9 at 5:30pm in the Milledgeville Country Club, sponsored by Dick Marcott.

- Board Members gave a report on developing their committees, & which Rotarian has agreed to head each committee.
- William Black, Kathy Settle & Gene Trammell were absent.
- Secretary Roger Noel noted our attendance for the first meeting of the new Rotary year was only 58%. Our overall attendance needs attention.
- President Elect VanHorn is working on plans for the 2003-04 auction fundraiser.
- Past President Serff is starting the Red Badge Program for new members. Our Rotary Student will be arriving from Germany on 8/10. Her name is Nina Teufel.
- President Gunn is working with the club Treasurer on the new budget, setting up recipients of Rotary Donations to attend meetings and reworking the bulletin because of costs.
- Thanks to Greg Ratliff and the Union Recorder for the excellent article and picture covering Rotary year 2002-03.
- Thanks to Tom Reese for his faithful work on the bulletin the past two years.
- The meeting adjourned at 6:45pm
