How Rotarians Can Promote Adult Literacy

- Volunteer as tutors or teach assistants.
- Support GED (General Education Degree) students by paying graduation expenses or providing scholarships for continued education.
- Fund child care or transportation for students.
- Provide motivational speakers for classes and workshops.
- Promote awareness of adult illiteracy, needs, and resources among local businesses and community members.
- Work with human resources managers in local businesses to identify workers needing literacy training.
- Collect or provide instructional materials or equipment for local adult-learning centers.
- Contribute books to local libraries.
- Encourage local governments to apply for funding or grants for literacy centers.
- Click every day on www.theliteracysite.com. If you go to this website and click on it a donation is made to literacy.
