Thousands Sheltered by Rotarian Effort

Rotarians from several districts and clubs are diligently working to provide refugees with shelter from the storm, as they have been since Hurricane Katrina made landfall on 29 August.

To date, their efforts have provided emergency accommodation for up to 24,000 survivors via 1,200 ShelterBoxes — containing tents and necessary equipment — delivered throughout the U.S. Gulf Coast.

The distribution of ShelterBoxes is one of the main Rotarian relief efforts for Katrina at this time, and it's being coordinated throughout the entire United States. Rotarians are working closely with agencies such as the Red Cross and Salvation Army.

Whether it's identifying campgrounds or other suitable places to set up tents or teaching the community how to best construct their ShelterBox villages, Rotarians are on the ground and making a difference.

According to Past District Governor Frank Bradshaw, a member of the Rotary Club of Lafayette South, Louisiana, 200 ShelterBoxes were taken to Katrina's ground zero in Gulfport, Mississippi. Lafayette and Lake Charles, Louisiana, were other early ShelterBox recipients.

The Houston Astrodome received 200 boxes, which were later distributed to areas such as Jackson, Mississippi, where there was a greater need for additional shelter. Atlanta, Georgia, is slated to receive 400 units for evacuees there. And Rotarians are working to determine how to get more ShelterBoxes to areas that remain destitute.

The ShelterBox project began in England but has since spread to Australia, Canada, and the United States. The Rotarian-sponsored groups ship units globally to areas in need.
