Tommy Morris - Georgia Area Director
Social Security Up-Date
 Rotarian of the day: Jeff Settle

Last Week - October 9th

Program: Classification Talks
The four newest members of Milledgeville Rotary provided the following insights/information during their Classification Talks:
Rod Theus - a Rotarian since the late 1980's, Rod is BB&T City president in Milledgeville. A native of Butler (Taylor County), he is a Georgia Southern graduate and he and his wife, Michele, have two children. Rod moved here from the BB&T in Douglas. He was named a Paul Harris Fellow by the Douglas Rotary Club.
Faye Gilbert - Faye is in her first year as dean of the J. Whitney Bunting School of Business at GC&SU. She is former associate dean at the University of Mississippi and is a native of Ocean Springs, Mississippi. Has had many "life adventures," is competitive and apparently has a difficult time finding a women's restroom...
Mitch Clarke - Assistant to the President/Director of Public Relations at GC&SU. A native of Blakely, GA, he is a Valdosta State University graduate. Began working for a newspaper while in high school and spent 15 years of his professional career as a journalist. He has been with GC&SU since August 2000. His dog, Glory, is a Springer Spaniel and a certified therapy dog.

ROTARY NEWS

Linda Irwin-DeVitis - Linda is the new dean of the School of Education at GC&SU. A former public school teacher, higher education teacher/administrator she joined GC&SU from the University of Louisville. She received her undergraduate and graduate degrees from University of Tennessee and her welcome to Milledgeville included no water, no electricity and a campuswide computer virus. Her daughter, a softball scholarship recipient at UNC-Greensboro, hopes to become a Marine aviator. Linda and her husband also edit a series of educational books.
